

Contents of Volume 23

No. 1

JAN WOLEŃSKI: An Abstract Approach to Bivalence	3–14
DANIELE GENITO and GIANGIACOMO GERLA: Connecting Bilattice Theory with Multivalued Logic	15–45
PAVEL MATERNA: Is Transparent Intensional Logic a Non-Classical Logic?	47–55
JIŘÍ RACLAVSKÝ: On the Interaction of Semantics and Deduction in Transparent Intensional Logic (Is Tichý’s logic a logic?)	57–68
MIROŚLAWA KOŁOWSKA-GAWIEJNOWICZ: Powerset Residuated Algebras	69–80
WU KUN and JOSEPH E. BRENNER: The Informational Stance: Philosophy and Logic. Part II: From Physics to Society	81–108
SAVAS L. TSOHATZIDIS: Addendum to “Self-Reference and the Divorce Between Meaning and Truth”	109–110
Book Reviews	111–115

No. 2

YAROSLAV SHRAMKO: The Logical Way of Being True: Truth values and the ontological foundation of logic	119–131
PAVEL MATERNA: Concepts as Hyperintensional Objects	133–170
PIOTR ŁUKOWSKI: Logical Problems with Nonmonotonicity	171–188

LAUREANO LUNA: No Successful Infinite Regress	189–201
STANISŁAW KICZUK: A System of the Logic of Change	203–238
Book Reviews	239–242

No. 3

DIDERIK BATENS: Propositional Logic Extended with a Pedagogically Useful Relevant Implication	245–276
GERARD ALLWEIN, WILLIAM L. HARRISON, and DAVID ANDREWS: Simulation Logic	277–299
PAOLO MAFFEZIOLI and ALBERTO NAIBO: Proof Theory of Epistemic Logic of Programs	301–328
YEHUDA SCHWARTZ and GEORGE TOURLAKIS: On the Proof-theory of a First-order Extension of GL	329–363
Book Reviews	365–368

No. 4

GEMMA ROBLES: A Simple Henkin-style Completeness Proof for Gödel 3-valued Logic G3	371–390
JASON MEGILL and TIMOTHY MELVIN: Computability and Human Symbolic Output	391–401
STANISŁAW KICZUK: The Logic of Causal Propositions	403–448
GIANLUIGI BELLIN, MASSIMILIANO CARRARA, DANIELE CHIFFI, and ALESSANDRO MENTI: Pragmatic and Dialogic Interpretations of Bi-intuitionism. Part I	449–480
KATARZYNA PAŁASIŃSKA: Three-element Non-finitely Axiomatizable Matrices and Term-equivalence	481–497
Book Reviews	499–508
Acknowledgments	509–510
